

We are the beloved, Young Adults: Creators

2 Timothy 4:11

Young adults, those ages 18 to 30, are known for their enthusiastic desire to create and establish a life for themselves.

John Mark exhibited the kind of faith that...

... mature leaders notice and recruit (Acts 12:25)

... jumps at the chance to create a new expression of Christ's presence (Acts 13:4, 5)

... when challenged with opposition or things do not go as he wants them to go, wavers (Acts 13:13)

... willingly moves forward with those who still see his potential (Acts. 15:36-40)

... persistently prevails, even with those he disappointed earlier (Colossians 4:10; 2 Timothy 4:11)

... makes an eternal contribution to the work of God (1 Peter 5:13; Mark 1:1)

If you are a young adult in your faith, which of the above characteristics describe you? Why?

Which of the characteristics do you desire for your trust relationship with Christ? Begin to cultivate that characteristic in your life this week.
